SPECIAL PICNIC EDITION

Pittsford Rotary is a Picnic... err, has a Picnic

- story below

VISITING ROTARIANS / GUESTS: There were thousands of family and guests (we here at the Accelerator staff have been known to exaggerate ever so slightly).

ATTENDANCE – Many Members, at least 1 honorary member, 0 visiting Rotarians, 10,000 guests.

MEMBER NEWS

Please forward any member news to Rick Haverty – email, phone, and napkins all work.

The big news this week was all the folks who made it to the picnic with friends and family in tow. It was great to see some young families, some old friends, and a lot of Rotary spirit.

For those of you who wondered what the big attraction is in Maine – here is a photo of the sunset at Ray Robbins' shore taken during his last trip there.

CLUB Attendance - Our attendance figure for August – 64 %

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HELP!: Tom had a copy of an article about the Habitat House from the Brighton-Pittsford Post. Those interested can email Tom at Tkremers@bturnkey.com or call on his cell phone at 749-7664.

ROAD CREW THANKED AGAIN: Oops – we left Roger Zaenglein off the list of those thanked last week. Sorry Roger.

ROTARY LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE – Saturday 11/6: The one-day institute session is coming up on November 6th in Canandaigua. Our club will share the $90 tuition fee with you if you're interested in going (you pay $45 – the club pays $45). It is a worth while educational experience that will also afford you the opportunity to hear from other Rotary members from the area.

PANCAKE SUPPER AD BOOKLETS: Pete Crooker is still taking last minute ads. Please see him as soon as possible to be included in this year's edition.

ROTARY INFORMATION: In Rotary we tend to pay a lot of attention to Community Service (which is good) and Fund Raising (which is necessary). We sometimes seem a little less focused on Vocational Services, though it continues to be an important part of our Rotary life. Here's a quick refresher from the RI web site...

Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions

The Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions was adopted by the Rotary International Council on Legislation in 1989 to provide more specific guidelines for the high ethical standards called for in the Object of Rotary:

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

- Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve;
- Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community;
- Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
- Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
- Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society;
- Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
- Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
- Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "Let us so live that when we come to die, even the undertaker will be sorry." - Mark Twain

JUST FOR FUN: A passer-by noticed an old lady sitting on her front step: "I couldn't help noticing how happy you look! What is your secret for such a long, happy life?"
"I smoke 4 packs of cigarettes a day", she said. "I stay out all night in some of the worst joints in town. Apart from that, I drink a whole bottle of Jack Daniels every week, and eat only junk food. On weekends I pop a huge number of pills and do no exercise at all."
"This is absolutely amazing at your age!!!!", says the passer-by. "Exactly how old are you?" She replied: "Twenty four"
